30th Annual Technology in Education Conference
December 6-8, 2015
Hotel Roanoke and Conference Center
#VSTE15
Attendee Edition

Congratulations and thank you! You are receiving this email because you are registered to attend the upcoming Technology in Education conference. We have created an exciting, innovative experience with lots of opportunities to learn, share and grow. Let people know you're going by sharing with #vste15.

Be sure to read the full email...you don't want to miss anything!

Registration Required: We'll be screening Most Likely to Succeed, on Sunday, December 6, at 8 PM. This feature length documentary film is about the past and future of education. Learn more about the film here. Come early for drinks and snacks and then stay after for a panel discussion of the film. Seats for the film are limited so if you're interested in seeing it, please register for your free ticket.

Opportunity to Participate in Tuesday's Closing Session: Rob Furman, one of our favorite speakers, will be facilitating a special closing session on Tuesday. Conference participants are encouraged to leave video messages about a variety of questions regarding the conference. I will use these videos during the Tuesday keynote/reflection session. There are pre-conference questions, and Rob will be using it throughout the conference to collect videos. He plans to take snippets of the videos and share with the audience. He will also choose people from the flipgrid responses to share live. Here's the link: <http://flipgrid.com/#vste2015>

The logo for McGraw Hill Education consists of the words 'Mc Graw Hill Education' stacked vertically in a white, bold, sans-serif font, set against a solid red rectangular background.

Create Your Schedule: You can begin creating your schedule using our online program: <https://2015vsteannualconference.sched.org/>. Please note: you are welcome and encouraged to let everyone know which sessions you plan to attend by using the share option in sched.org. That does not guarantee you a space in the session so be sure to get there early to ensure a spot.

Once you check it out, we think you'll want to encourage your colleagues to register at <http://events.vstereg.org>.

We have asked presenters to share their materials through our Google Plus Community. You can join the community here: <http://goo.gl/uqdRN>

And there's more...

Kid Talks: These Sunday afternoon poster sessions will include students from regional school divisions sharing their best projects and innovative ideas.

The Hackerspace returns for its third year with a focus on coding and creating. We'll be celebrating the Hour of Code. Check out the Hackerspace schedule.

Monday Night Fun: Starting with the exhibit hall party at 5 PM (including our favorite DJ) and then the Karaoke/Star Wars Costume Party at 8 PM, we'll spend the evening partying and celebrating our 30th anniversary!

Please Consider Volunteering: Help Needed And Did We Mention the One-of-a-Kind Shirt?

URGENT: We need help with Sunday lunch...please consider signing up now!

Our conference has always benefited from the numerous folks in the past who have graciously given some of their time to make VSTE the best conference in the state. This year can we count on you for your help?

We still have several volunteer slots to fill.

Time slots range from 45-75 minutes with the majority being about 75 minutes. We have tried to arrange our times so you will not miss more than one session. All volunteers will receive
